Media Release

The Chung Wah Association celebrates Chinese New Year 2025, the Year of the Snake, with a series of special events.

The Chung Wah Association is thrilled to announce their 2025 Chinese New Year celebrations, from Sunday 2 February until Friday 7 February 2025, marking the auspicious occasion of the Year of the Snake, a time of renewal and transformation.

Perth Chinese New Year Fair

- Sunday 2 February 2025
- James and Lake Streets, Northbridge (12pm – 9pm)
- Yagan Square, Perth (12pm – 5pm)
- Free Admission

The Perth Chinese New Year Fair promises a captivating array of cultural experiences and festivities. Attendees can immerse themselves in traditional arts and crafts, and witness colourful cultural performances, including the highly anticipated lion and dragon dances. James Street in Northbridge will be closed to traffic and will be filled with food and craft stalls. The Northbridge Piazza stage will showcase Chinese cultural performances throughout the event. Yagan Square will again be included in the festivities. The Perth Chinese New Year Fair has grown into one of the largest and most beloved community events in the City of Perth, with an annual attendance of over 40,000 visitors.

Chung Wah Community Care Longevity Lunch

- Tuesday 4 February 2025, 10.30am – 2.30pm
- Chung Wah Cultural Centre, 18 Radalj Place, Balcatta.
- $60 per ticket non-refundable.

This event provides an excellent opportunity to reunite our community to celebrate longevity and share wellness stories. In addition to the outstanding cultural performances and delicious Asian cuisine, our Longevity Luncheon's essence lies in our community, our participating seniors, families, and friends, making this event exceptional. Great food and unique programs have been lined up to welcome all the participants.

Chung Wah Chinese New Year Ball

- Friday 7 February 2025
- 7.00pm until late.
- Pan Pacific Hotel, 207 Adelaide Terrace, Perth.

The Chung Wah Chinese New Year Ball is the singular signature calendar event for the Western Australian Chinese community. Join us for a night of celebration and connection as we ring in the Year of The Wood Snake together! This will be an extraordinary evening of great entertainment and delectable, complemented fine wine and dancing until late. We encourage you to reserve your table promptly, as demand is high and spaces are limited.

Chung Wah Association warmly invites the entire community to join us in celebrating the most vibrant Chinese festival of the year. Save the date, mark your calendars, and join us as we usher in the Year of the Snake in style with the Chung Wah Association, the oldest ethnic association in Western Australia!
